

REMARKS

Claims 42-61 and 63-81 are currently pending in the subject application, and are presently under consideration. Claims 55-61 are allowed. Claims 42-54, 63-81 are rejected. Claims 52-54, 63-64, 67-68 and 70-81 have been amended. Favorable reconsideration of the application is requested in view of the amendments and comments herein.

I. Amendments to the Specification

The Specification has been amended to clarify that program code (e.g., computer executable instructions) can be accessed and executed by a processing unit (e.g., one or more computer processors). The amendments to the Specification reflect what is well known in the art. Thus, no new matter should be considered to have been added.

II. Examiner's Interview

On June 15, 2010, Examiner Andrew Lee extended the courtesy of an Examiner's Interview to Applicant's representative. During the interview, the Examiner suggested several amendments to the claims that may overcome the rejections. Subsequent to the interview, Applicant's representative submitted a proposed set of claims to the Examiner. Upon review, the Examiner informed Applicant's representative that claims 42-63 of the proposed set of claims were in proper form, while the remaining claims needed to be amended to more clearly recite method steps, and to clarify that a computer readable medium is non-transitory. Thus, the claims have been amended in the manner suggested by the Examiner. Accordingly, Applicant's representative respectfully submits that the claims are in condition for allowance. Therefore, reconsideration and allowance of claims 42-54, 63-81 is respectfully requested.

CONCLUSION

In view of the foregoing remarks, Applicant respectfully submits that the present application is in condition for allowance. Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration of this application and that the application be passed to issue.

Please charge any deficiency or credit any overpayment in the fees for this amendment to our Deposit Account No. 20-0090.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 6 July 2010
